

Human Factors for HCAs

Calling all HCAs...

Did you look like this the last time you did any training?

The Human Factors for HCAs (HCA CARMA) course has been developed for all Health Care Assistants involved in direct patient care. The course runs over a full day and is free to all NHS employees working for NHS throughout the Yorkshire and Humber region.

Using high fidelity adult manikins and simulation based-education the course aims to develop confidence and competence in recognising and assessing potentially sick patients, develop crisis management skills, communication and teamwork skills within the multidisciplinary team.
